File a separate complaint form for each date when each parenting time violation occurred. The date of the alleged violation must be no later than 56 days from date you file this complaint. Agreements between the parties for parenting time are unenforceable if they differ from the exact parenting time order language.

1. There is a signed order regarding parenting time in this case dated: _____.
2. The other party has violated the above-dated parenting time order as follows:

a. Exact date parenting time was denied: _____
b. Exact time parenting time was denied on this date: _____ AM/PM
c. Circle the type of parenting time you were denied on the date above: 1) Weekday 3) Holiday(Name holiday _____) 2) Weekend 4) Summer--Spring Break--Winter Break
d. Describe your efforts to exercise your court ordered parenting time on this date/time: (attach page if needed)
e. Describe actions taken by the other party to wrongfully deny your parenting time: (attach page if needed)
f. Duration of parenting time denied as a result of the other party's action: _____ # of Hours (for weeknight or other non-overnight parenting time) OR _____ # of Overnights (for weekend/summer/holiday/school break parenting time)

3. I am requesting make up parenting time of the same duration and type as described above.
4. I understand that if the FOC determines that the allegation above is actionable, the other party will be given 21 days to respond to this allegation in writing.
5. I understand that if the other party fails to respond to the allegation, I will be granted an order for make up parenting time equal to the amount and type of parenting time I was denied without a hearing being scheduled in this matter.
6. I understand that if the other party responds and denies the allegation, the Friend of the Court will schedule a hearing before a Family Court Referee where both parties will be ordered to appear.

I verify that the above statement is true and accurate to the best of my information, knowledge and belief.
