If you fail to do even one of the required steps, the order you get from the court may not give you the authority you want.

NOTE: Under the Michigan Child Support Formula, a change in domicile or legal residence may affect parenting time and the amount of child support that is ordered. The court is required to use the Michigan Child Support Formula unless the court finds that using the formula would be unjust or inappropriate.

If you have any questions about the steps in the process, refer to pages 3 through 5 of this booklet for details.

2. File the Response form with the circuit court clerk.

Take the original and five copies of the form to the circuit court clerk in the county where the motion was filed. The name of the county will be in the upper left-hand corner of the motion form.

The circuit court clerk will write the name of the judge assigned to your case on your form. The clerk will keep the original and one copy for the court file and the friend of the court. Then the clerk will return four copies and remaining attachments to you. Do not lose them.

What you need for service:

- One copy of FOC 116 (with any attachments) - for the other party

3. Attend the hearing.

You must attend the hearing on the motion.

»» INFORMATION ABOUT ATTENDING THE HEARING

Bring your copy of the motion and your response along with all supporting papers and any witnesses who are willing to testify.

1. Because you are representing yourself, you are expected to conduct yourself as an attorney would and to follow the same general rules an attorney would.
2. Make a list of information you think is important for the referee to know. The information should relate to the reasons stated in your motion. You can use this list as a reminder to bring up the points you think are important.
3. If you think you need to order (subpoena) someone to attend this hearing, follow the procedure in Michigan Court Rule 2.506 or consult with an attorney.
4. Go to the referee's hearing room on the scheduled day and time. Dress neatly. Arrive 10 or 15 minutes early. Be prepared to spend most of the morning or afternoon in court. Bring any witnesses with you.
5. Go into the referee hearing room and tell the referee your name, that you are there for a hearing, and that you are representing yourself. Do not interrupt any hearing in progress. Then take a seat in the back of the courtroom and wait for your case to be called.
6. When you are called, be prepared to state:
 - 1) your name.
 - 2) that you are representing yourself.

- 3) that you want to respond to the motion to allow a change in domicile/legal residence.
- 4) the facts or reasons for your response (bring papers such as reports that support your facts or reasons).
- 5) whether you have witnesses in court who are willing to testify.

Answer the referee's questions clearly and directly. If the referee wants to hear from the other witnesses, ask them to tell the court what they saw or know regarding your situation.

7. If the other party is in court, he or she will have a chance to speak also. When the other party talks, take notes. Do not interrupt the other party. After the other party speaks, you will have another chance to talk. Taking notes will help you with this.

NOTE: If your hearing was held before a referee and you do not agree with the referee's decision, you have 21 days from the date you receive the referee's recommendation to file an objection and request a de novo hearing before the judge. Use the packet for Motion to Set Aside the Referee Recommendation.
